

VIGILANT FAR AWAY.

Boomed Along Past Fire Island at 6 O'clock This Morning.

Was Then Scooting Eastward at a 12-Mile-an-Hour Gait.

Her Racing Spars Go in the Ethiopia.

Vigilant is now well on her voyage to Scotland, and no reports of her progress may be expected until her arrival off the British coast, except such as may be brought by westward-bound vessels that may speak her in passing. It is barely possible that she may be sighted off Ireland, but with a good westerly wind behind her, Capt. Jeffrey is apt to leave this coast dead astern as rapidly as she can log off nautical miles.

When the yacht was anchored in the Horseshoe yesterday afternoon the weather was thick and gave no prospect of clearing. During the night the wind hauled out of the East and by midnight was blowing from the Southwest at a twelve-mile rate. Anchor had been hove short and sails taken off Vigilant so that she got under way as soon as the wind shifted and at 12:40 A.
M. she rounded Sandy Hook and laid her course to the East.

When she was opposite the Western Union Telegraph Company's marine observatory, she displayed the New York Yacht Club signal, "green, red, green," which was answered by the observatory with three green Conston lights, which lit up the surroundings for about a hundred yards in all directions. The yacht was a pretty marine picture when she made her signals, as Conston signals show a yacht vessel's full outlines, and as Vigilant is white, it showed her to the best advantage.

Vigilant was then under full working sail, consisting of mainmast and jigger, topmast, foremast and jibtopmast. The yard was over the quarter, and Fire Island was passed at 5 o'clock this morning. The wind came more westerly at that time, and she was taking it dead astern, making a good twelve knots an hour almost straight on her course.

The Ethiopia will carry on her deck when she sails to-morrow a complete suite of racing spars belonging to the Vigilant. There are two main booms, one of them a heavy spar, and the other a light spar, both of them of the same length in diameter, two topmasts, three gaffs, a spinnaker boom, several topmast staves and her racing bowsprit. A square mainmast went over in the City of Rome.

Work is being pushed rapidly aboard Atlanta, and her painting is now almost finished, the funnel receiving its final coat to-day. Coaling was begun yesterday, and her bunkers are now nearly full.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

There was to have been a finish fight early yesterday morning in a road-house on Long Island, between Johnny Young and Eddie Sweeney, both well-known Brooklyn boxers. When time was called only fourteen persons had paid admission to see the fight, and with the purse offered there was only $50 in sight. The lads refused to go on and the bout was postponed.

pound man to put against him.

Chicago, which was to have been decided in the rooms of the Olympic Club last called the finish fight between Johnson and Gibbons a "draw." The referee said of the twenty-fourth round he said: "There will be no more fighting here tonight." An indefinite postponement resulted.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There have been many queer races run in the East in recent years, but that which has the opening "attraction" at Morris Park yesterday deserves a prominent position in the freak gallery. By its conditions only two-year-olds that had never won a race and jockeys that had never won a race were eligible to start. There were fifteen starters, and of the curious collection of jockeys eight or nine never rode in a race until yesterday. By some oversight it was not stated on the programme with what endorsement the persons who drew up the conditions of this contest is in partnership.
The factlessness of two year-olds is proverbial, and when a powerful race association makes the maximum weight to be carried by any of the animals 100 pounds, and specifies that only green lads shall ride and allows fifteen of such youngsters to start, it really seems as if it is time to call a halt.

One of the officials of the Jockey Club, in writing a glowing report of the race, allowed this statement to creep into his narrative:

"... were in the main diminutive but ranged in color from white to coal black, and many of the little lads could scarcely hold the scales to make their weight."

Another gentleman, an ardent supporter of the Jockey Club, has this to say:

"The management of the New York Jockey Club is to be heartily congratulated upon introducing this contest, which cannot fail to become a feature of the racing season. The
